THE MOVE

Note something specific -> Reference it later -> No agenda — just showing you listened

START HERE

In your next conversation, pick one specific thing the person says and reference it later — even just five minutes later. Nothing more.

SAY THIS

Recall Openers	"You mentioned earlier that..."
Warmth Signals	"I am asking because it sounded important, not just making conversation."
Quick Recalls	"How did Tuesday go?"
Professional Recall	"Last sprint you flagged a risk around the integration — is it still live?"
Recall Repairs	"I should have asked about this sooner — you mentioned it weeks ago."

AVOID

- When referencing something the person has clearly moved on from or would rather forget.
- When you do not genuinely remember — do not fake specificity, it will be detected.
- When the reference could feel like surveillance or scorekeeping rather than genuine care.

REMEMBER

Write it down within the hour, or it never happened.
