

THE MOVE

Context + optional invitation + easy exit + warm acceptance. -> A few of us are getting coffee after the session. You're welcome to join if you want — no problem either way. -> I'm collecting thoughts on the draft. If you have a quick reaction, I'd ?

START HERE

You're welcome to join if you want — and no problem at all if not.

SAY THIS

Quick	"You're welcome to join if you want — no problem if not."
Social invitations	"A few of us are grabbing lunch after this. You're welcome to come along if you feel like it — no pressure."
Work and collaboration	"If you have a view, I'd be glad to hear it. Also fine to pass if this isn't your lane."
Naming the option	"You can answer now, later, or not at all."
When the opt-out mu...	"I don't want to put you on the spot. You can answer now, later, or not at all."
Softening a loaded in...	"I realise that may have sounded more loaded than I meant. It's genuinely optional."

AVOID

- The action is genuinely required and needs to be named as required
- There is a safety, legal, clinical, or compliance issue that needs direct language
- A power difference makes "no pressure" hard to believe

REMEMBER

Open the door; don't stand in the doorway.