Stack: notice you are about to ask several questions. -> Reset: "Let me make that one question." -> One anchor: ask the single question that best opens the next useful answer. -> Wait: leave room for the answer without adding a second prom...

I asked too many things at once. One question: what is the main part?

SAY THIS

Anchor questions	"What happened first?"
Reset the pile	"I just asked too many things at once. Let me make it one."
Social / everyday	"Actually, ignore my pile of questions. What was the main part for you?"
Work, manager & dec...	"What is the main blocker right now?"
Digital / text	"I sent too many questions. Answer the easiest one first."
Conflict & disagreeem...	"I do not want to cross-examine you. What felt unfair?"

AVOID

- A formal checklist, safety protocol, emergency triage or compliance script requires a specific sequence.
- The other person has clearly asked for a list of questions in advance.
- You are using "one question" as a way to corner someone with a loaded prompt.

REMEMBER

One question mark per turn is the default.
