Front card: What to notice

TC096 / Top500 rank 96 / Capitalisation extension

Perception

Listen for wins, relief, positive feedback, progress, milestones, proud moments, or quiet satisfaction.

Move

Mark the event specifically. Avoid generic praise, envy, advice, or your own story.

Phrase

"That is a real win, especially after the uncertainty. What was the moment it felt real?"

Stop rule

If they deflect or shrink, downshift and let the win stay small.

Use this to increase warmth and respect, not to pressure a display of happiness.

Back card: How to respond

Good news deserves calibrated room, not a spotlight grab.

Best prompts

"What was the best part?" / "What made it feel real?" / "What should not get lost?"

Neighbour distinction

TC016 is the positive response stance. TC096 is the extension move after the good news appears.

Common mistakes

Generic applause, one-upping, forced positivity, over-questioning, and public exposure.

Recovery

"I may have made that bigger than you wanted. I just meant: good news."

One prompt is usually enough.
