

THE MOVE

Cue -> small move -> pause -> observe -> follow or release. -> Good to see you, Maya. -> You mentioned the presentation — how did it land? -> One name or one detail, used once, then hand the floor back.

START HERE

Use their name once, or refer to one relevant detail they already shared — then stop and watch the response.

SAY THIS

|-------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Greeting by name        | "Good to see you, Maya."                                                        |
| Reconnecting warmly     | "You mentioned the presentation last week — how did it land?"                   |
| Work / meeting conti... | "You flagged the budget as the sticking point last time — where's that landed?" |
| Checking a detail       | "I may be misremembering, but was today the Sydney meeting?"                    |
| When the detail is off  | "I may be reading this wrong — ignore it if it doesn't fit."                    |
| Digital / text          | "I may be reading this wrong, but this seems like the relevant thread."         |

AVOID

- When the detail is sensitive or private
- When it would look strategic or intrusive
- When you are unsure the detail is accurate

REMEMBER

Remember lightly.
