

THE MOVE

Content: So the practical issue is that X happened, then Y changed, and now Z is uncertain. -> Emotion: So it was not just inconvenient — it felt genuinely frustrating and unfair. -> Meaning: The part that seems to matter most is that it ?

START HERE

Reflect back the one thing that matters most, then check it: "So the main thing is X, not just Y — have I got that right?"

SAY THIS

Quick defaults	"Let me check I have this right."
Warm and human	"I want to make sure I am not missing the part that matters."
Conflict-safe	"Let me summarise your side before I give mine."
Professional / leader...	"Let me summarise the decision point."
Persuasion / advice s...	"If I have understood your priority, it is..."
Digital / text	"Quick recap so I know I have understood:"

AVOID

- They need a direct answer urgently, not a recap
- The person needs safety, privacy, silence or practical help instead
- Physical safety or an emergency response takes priority

REMEMBER

A good summary check makes them think: "Yes — that's exactly what I was trying to say."
