

THE MOVE

Open -> Affirm -> Reflect -> Summarise: pick the one move the moment needs. -> Open: "What matters most to you about this?" -> Affirm: "You have clearly put real thought into this." -> Reflect: "So it sounds like the timing is the real sticking point?"

START HERE

Pick the single OARS move the moment needs — an open question, an affirmation, a reflection or a summary — and say it in plain words, without naming the framework.

SAY THIS

Open questions (O)	"What matters most to you about this?"
Affirmations (A)	"You have clearly put real thought into this."
Reflections (R)	"So it sounds like the timing is the real sticking point."
Summaries (S)	"Let me pull that together and check I have it right."
Quick prompts and e...	"Say more?"
Simplifying and repai...	"Let me say that more simply."

AVOID

- Urgent instruction or a rapid briefing
- Someone has directly asked for a straight answer or clear direction
- Physical safety or an emergency takes priority

REMEMBER

Scaffolding, not choreography